

I strongly urge continuation of the prohibition on the use of cell phones aboard airborne airplanes. It is a form of noise pollution from which one cannot escape in such a confined space. In my experience cell phone users are uniformly inconsiderate of other members of the public, carrying on loud personal conversations regardless of their surroundings. As smoking on airplanes has been banned, so should the use of cell phones on airborne airplanes be banned.